

Launch Your Career with Our CPA Student Program

Ready to start your journey to becoming a CPA? We're hiring for our CPA student program, with an intake for September 2027.

If you're a soon-to-be accounting graduate who's great with people, eager to learn, and excited to challenge yourself, we want to hear from you.

Our program offers more than just valuable experience—it's a path to success. You'll gain hands-on training and receive dedicated mentorship to guide you through your modules and exams. We are committed to your growth and proud of the success of our program. Every single one of our current supervisors, managers, and partners began their careers as students right here at Romanovsky. Join us and see where your career can go.
